

PICK STRINGER TO OPPOSE SULLIVAN

Congressman Made Official Democratic Candidate for Senate by Leaders.

STATEMENT GIVEN OUT

Senator Lewis, Governor Dunne, and Mayor Harrison Urge Support for Downstate Man.

Springfield, Ill., July 16.—Congressman at Large Lawrence B. Stringer is the "official" anti-Sullivan candidate for the democratic senatorial nomination.

His candidacy has received the endorsement of Senator James Hamilton Lewis, Governor Edward F. Dunne, and Mayor Carter H. Harrison of Chicago. In a signed statement, given to the public last night, they advise the Illinois democracy to nominate him.

Here is the statement: "To the Democrats of Illinois: For many weeks past we have been urged by many loyal and influential democrats of the state to declare a preference for some one of the democratic candidates for United States senator. Recently this pressure has become most insistent. About June 1 Governor Dunne and Mayor Harrison publicly stated, in answer to this pressure, that, in their opinion, because of the great preponderance of the offices now held by gentlemen who are residents of Cook county, it would be wise to select the democratic candidate from among those seeking the office that did not reside in Cook county.

"We all herewith adhere to this position. This opinion, we believe, is shared by the most democrats who have the real interests of the party at heart.

Should Center Support. "To insure the success of a downstate candidate and the success of the party it seems to be the consensus of opinion among most democrats of the state that our party should center support upon some one of the downstate candidates.

"Without detracting from the qualifications of other downstate candidates, we have reached the conclusion, after mature consideration and after seeking and securing the opinions of many influential and disinterested democrats from all parts of the state, that Lawrence B. Stringer possesses most prominently the qualifications that will gather to his support the democrats of the state who are in hearty accord with the principles of progressive democracy as typified in the persons of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan, and as such we recommend him to the democrats of Illinois who wish to sustain the policies of the Wilson administration.

"Mr. Stringer was one of the original Wilson democrats in Illinois, and has loyally supported the president's policies as congressman at large for Illinois. His record in public and private life is clean and honorable. He has been the chosen candidate of our party for governor, United States senator, and congressman at large. When defeated, as well as when successful, he has always made a splendid showing at the polls, and we believe he

Chronology of the Career of Huerta

Washington, D. C., July 16.—Victoriano Huerta, deposed dictator of Mexico was born sixty-three years ago at Colotlan, Jalisco province, Mexico. The main events of his career follow:

1871—Graduated from the Chapultepec military school with honors in mathematics and astronomy.

Madero from the palace to the penitentiary, and while the transfer was being made Madero was murdered; May 3, recognized by Great Britain; Aug. 1, President Wilson let it be known he would not recognize Huerta; Oct. 11, arrested members of chamber of deputies who disapproved his course as president; Oct. 26, formally elected himself president at a military controlled election.

1914—Suffered a series of military defeats at hands of Constitutionalists by which he lost control of over half of Mexican territory; refused to salute the American flag because of insult to officers of battleship in Tampico harbor; Americans occupied Vera Cruz after two days' fighting; agreed to mediate differences with Americans at conferences at Niagara Falls; mediation failed; appointed Francisco Carbajal foreign minister and resigned, turning government to him.

still retains the confidence and respect of the democratic rank and file and is in every way worthy of a position in the senate of the United States."

Want Democratic Success.

"This announcement is not made in a spirit of dictation, but with the sole purpose of advising our fellow democrats honestly and disinterestedly for the best interests of the democratic party in the state and nation at a time which we believe is critical in the state of Illinois. The holding of public office does not disqualify the holders from advising their fellow citizens, particularly when this advice has been honestly sought, and the advice herein offered is given under these circumstances.

"In making this statement we are actuated solely by the desire to insure democratic success at the polls next November so that Illinois shall, with

CARBAJAL NOTED AS ABLE JURIST

Serves Numerous Terms in the Courts Before Being Picked to Succeed Huerta.

ONCE DIAZ PEACE AGENT

Independent, Well-to-Do, of Unquestioned Probity and Said to Be Impartial to All.

Mexico City, July 16.—Francisco Carbajal, named successor to President Huerta of Mexico, is 44 years old, a native of the state of Campeche, and a lawyer.

Almost ever since the start of his career he has occupied posts in the judiciary having been successively district judge in Campeche and Vera Cruz, circuit judge and justice of the supreme court. He was for a time state secretary in Tabasco when General Abraham Bandala was governor.

In the Madero administration he was a senator, but relinquished his post to re-enter the supreme court, of which he was chief justice at the time General Huerta appointed him minister of foreign relations.

Once Diaz's Peace Agent.

When General Porfirio Diaz determined in 1911 to treat with the Madero revolutionists, Senor Carbajal proceeded to Juarez as his commissioner.

Senor Carbajal has a reputation for possessing considerable intellectual force and independence of character. He shuns the exuberance in verbiage and gesticulation to which Latin-Americans are prone. He is courteous, but a man of few words and little given to elaborate compliments.

No Trace of Indian Blood.

Besides, he is neat and well groomed in appearance. His features indicate pure European descent, without any admixture of Indian blood.

Although he is a man who conveys an impression of reserve power. He is a good man of business.

His probity has never been questioned. He has been sagacious and successful in investments and, while not rich, is a man of independent means. He is a man of family.

Owing to his independence and impartiality and his habit of expressing his opinion with frankness and without respect to persons, his appointment to the foreign office was regarded favorably by the public.

This was considered a good omen, for through the appointment Justice Carbajal became under the constitution the automatic successor of General Huerta whenever he should quit the presidency.

two senators, continue to uphold the hands of the president at Washington. "Stringer's selection at the primary we believe will insure the election of the democratic candidates for congress, the legislature and other offices throughout the state."

Sullivan Men Reply.

Chicago, Ill., July 16.—Sullivan's campaign manager declared last night that the Dunne-Harrison-Lewis ukase would have no effect on the present situation.

Charles Boeschstein of Edwardsville, democratic national committee-man for Illinois and director of the Sullivan campaign, last night gave out the following formal statement:

"The belated Dunne-Harrison-Lewis statement has been anticipated for some time and therefore contributes no new element to the campaign.

"The inconsistency of these three Chicago office holders in attempting to dictate to the rank and file of the democratic party of the state of Illinois the party's candidate for United States senator in the face of the direct primary law, is apparent to every one. For the first time in the history of this state a United States senator is to be nominated and elected by the direct vote of the people of Illinois. Why not leave the nomination of the democratic candidate for United States senator to the democratic voters as the law contemplates?

"The attempted dictation by these residents of Chicago to downstate democrats will not carry any weight. The situation is not affected one iota by the attitude of these men. Mr. Sullivan is adhering to the spirit of the direct election law. He has carried his candidacy to the people in an open and square manner, and is ready to abide by the verdict of the democratic voters of Illinois."

made so many women better by making their work easier, that it has restored their youth as well as their health.

Fels-Naptha makes every line of housework easier. On washday, it gets the clothes out on the line in half the time, with half the trouble. On housecleaning days, it whitens the paint, cleans the woodwork, brightens up brass, and takes stains out of carpets and rugs. When you wash dishes, it dissolves the grease and makes silver and glassware shine. It does all these things in cool or lukewarm water. No need to boil clothes to whiten them.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper.

Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Called Liars and Crooks During Third Degree—Sensational charges were preferred against Lieutenant Frank Lew and Detective William Bishop yesterday by T. L. and P. A. Hall, proprietors of the Overland garage, 428 East Second street.

The complainants have asked for a hearing before the police commission, the petition or same, accompanied by affidavits, being filed with the city clerk. The Hall Bros. allege that they were unlawfully imprisoned on June 10 or 11 for a period of four hours. The affidavits state that they were given the third degree by Lieutenant Lew and Detective Bishop, and during the session were called liars and crooks. The complainants allege they were falsely accused and were forced to submit to abuse and indignities. They state that on June 4th they bought a Ford machine from Roy Houston, which later was sold to Willey & Son. On June 10 or 11, F. H. Hansen of Des Moines appeared on the scene and demanded the car, which had been stolen from him. The Halls state they told the police the full particulars but were called liars and were accused of crooked dealings in the past. The commission has set no date for the hearing as yet.

Relatives to Collect Sum of Money—

The sum of $500 has been agreed upon by Paul Radenhausen, administrator in the estate of Thomas J. Rathburn, who died after being injured by an automobile, as the claim for damages against William T. Cotter, manager of Crane company, whose car struck him. Mr. Radenhausen had been appointed administrator of the Rathburn estate and Mr. Cotter claimed, he said, that he was in no way responsible for the death of Rathburn. He was struck the evening of Oct. 25, 1913, between Fifth and Sixth streets on Brady street. Mr. Cotter said that while he did not believe he was in any way responsible for the accident which caused Rathburn's death, he was willing to settle for $500. Judge Donegan approved application of the administrator for settlement.

Raising Sum of $60,000 in Big Campaign—

The sum of $36,000 for the first of the three days' campaign of the Cathedral parish for the new parochial school was reported at the meeting of the 26 committees at the school hall. This report is most gratifying to those in charge of the campaign, and it was predicted that the sum of $60,000 would be raised with little difficulty on the part of the parish.

The prisoner was fined $1 and costs.

Confiscate Samples of Bottled Goods—

The report that "blind tigers" are openly flourishing in various Davenport pool rooms is being investigated by the police, as a result of which probe startling conditions may be revealed. Plain clothes men made the rounds, and in several instances, samples of the liquid were confiscated and placed in the hands of Chief Schramm. These will be analyzed and future action will be contingent upon the reports received from chemists. The product sold comes in pint bottles and is said to have every appearance of beer. Pool room proprietors claim the beverage to contain only 1 per cent of alcohol, and to be non-intoxicating. Should a chemical analysis of various samples disclose the fact that the beverage is intoxicating, drastic action will be taken by the authorities. "Young men buy this stuff in the pool rooms, and we want to know what it is," said the chief. He exhibited one sample, bottled by a strictly correct labeled "Malticks." The police are endeavoring to enforce the city ordinance prohibiting minors from entering pool rooms, but violations have been reported. The authorities are fearful that boys, purchasing the alleged temperance beer may acquire a taste for liquor.

Alfalfa Yields Four Cuttings—

Harvesting of the barley crop is now occupying the principal attention of the farmers in Scott county. The crop is running about 25 bushels to the acre. The end of the present week will see the greater part of the grain cut. The second cutting of alfalfa is now being mowed, the crop expected to run one and one-half tons per acre. The first cutting yielded two tons and the crop is now so far along that many farmers will have a fourth clipping.
